GOOD FOOD AWARDS COFFEE ENTRY PLEDGE

Thank you for choosing to enter your coffee to the Good Food Awards. To further recognize those roasters and farmers making defined steps towards environmental and social responsibility, we require this co-signed pledge by roaster and farmer/head of growing co-op to accompany all entered coffees. In signing this pledge each party is certify that this coffee satisfies all of the following required criteria for entry to the Good Food Awards. For all entered coffees, we require that the source farm/co-op is certified Organic or in transition to Organic. All coffee entries are required to have third party organic certification or be involved in a transitional organic program.

After signed by both parties, please scan and send this signed pledge to info@goodfoodawards.org specifying the Coffee Company and Coffee Name in the subject line by September 1 for each coffee submitted.

Pledge of Eligibility

In order to be eligible for a Good Food Award, I pledge that all my entries fit the following criteria and understand that if I am a finalist I will have to speak further to these criteria and will not be eligible to win if my entry does not comply.

For my entered coffee I certify that:

- The farm or co-op is either certified Organic or in transition to Organic
- There is price transparency throughout the supply chain
- The four fundamental principles of rights of work are observed: Laborers have the freedom to associate and have a right to collective bargaining, there is no compulsory labor, there is no hired child labor, and there is no discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Please write the name of the third party Organic certifier for the farm/co-op:

I certify that my entered coffee to the Good Food Awards satisfies the above criteria:
